FY2018 Review Committee

The Review Committee is comprised of neighborhood representatives who serve as a peer review group for all NSP proposals. The purpose of the Review Committee is to review and vote for or against NSP proposals, recommend the issuance of contracts to communities by the City and provide input to the City relative to changes or enhancement of the program. A minimum of five members of the Review Committee shall be present at a meeting to constitute a quorum. The following Community Councils are expected to serve on the FY2018 Review Committee:

FY2018 Review Committee
Clifton	North Avondale
Columbia Tusculum	Sayler Park
East Westwood	Spring Grove Village
Kennedy Heights	West Price Hill
Mt. Washington	-

Review Committee members must attend majority of the Committee meetings scheduled during their term for their Community Council to be considered as having fulfilled their obligation to serve. A Community Council that does not fulfill its requirement will be subject to suspension by the Review Committee from participation in NSP. The Review Committee will review potential suspensions and recommend reinstatement conditions for each case.
